Footprints of Faith

Testimony and Perseverance Through Temptation

Lesson One: A Path Worth Taking

Participant Outline

Focus: Identify the purpose of spiritual growth and explain how testimony can encourage a difficult faithful choice.

Scripture readings: Hebrews 11:24–26; Hebrews 11:32–40; Hebrews 12:1–3.

Follow the lesson

1. A Road That Bears Witness
2. A Path Worth Choosing
3. Testimony Makes Perseverance Visible
4. An Ordinary Footprint
5. Looking Toward the Summit

Key ideas

• The destination gives perseverance purpose.

• A difficult feeling is not a complete judgment of a decision.

• Testimony encourages; Scripture guides its evaluation.

Discuss and reflect

1. What makes faithfulness worth pursuing when pleasure is immediately available?
2. How can testimony encourage without becoming a guarantee?
3. What lasting good might a difficult choice protect?

Personal application

The direction being pursued is… One choice that supports it is…

Notes and reflections

_____

_____

_____

_____

Keep this page for the final testimony project. Reflections may remain private.