Footprints of Faith

Testimony and Perseverance Through Temptation

Lesson Ten: Keep Walking Toward the Summit

Participant Outline

Focus: Review the course, identify the next faithful step, and prepare the final written testimony for sharing.

Scripture readings: Philippians 3:7–14; Philippians 1:3–6; 1 Corinthians 10:12. For the project: Hebrews 12:1–3; 1 Corinthians 10:12–13.

Follow the lesson

1. Looking Back and Moving Forward
2. Paul and the Continuing Pursuit
3. Reviewing the Footprints
4. Confidence Without Carelessness
5. An Ordinary Account of Continued Growth
6. The Next Faithful Step
7. Preparing the Final Testimony

Key ideas

• The course ends while the journey continues.

• A truthful testimony includes both change and continuing need.

• Sharing contributes encouragement, not a universal guarantee.

Discuss and reflect

1. What evidence supports the account of change?
2. What continuing difficulty should remain visible?
3. What encouragement and next step will the testimony offer?

Personal application

What has changed is… What remains ongoing is… My next faithful step is…

Notes and reflections

_____

_____

_____

_____

Keep this page for the final testimony project. Reflections may remain private.