Testimony and Perseverance Through Temptation

Lesson Nine: Others Have Walked Before

Participant Outline

Focus: Receive testimony thoughtfully and select an experience and audience for responsible sharing.

Scripture readings: Hebrews 11:32–40; Hebrews 12:1–3; Ecclesiastes 4:9–12; Hebrews 10:23–25; 2 Corinthians 1:3–4.

Follow the lesson

1. The Path Is Shared
2. Witnesses With Different Outcomes
3. Encouragement Through Relationship
4. Listening to a Testimony Carefully
5. An Ordinary Testimony of Support
6. Sharing Without Performing
7. Preparing to Contribute a Footprint

Key ideas

• Different journeys can offer shared encouragement.

• Support can include help before and after a difficult choice.

• Truth and respect should govern both listening and sharing.

Discuss and reflect

1. What help can another person provide during an unfinished struggle?
2. How can a listener respect an account and still examine its conclusions?
3. What changes when the audience becomes wider?

Personal application

An experience suitable for my testimony is… Its purpose and possible audience are…
